OBJECTIVE

Seeking a challenging role that allows me to learn and work with new technologies alongside a team of experienced professionals. I am looking to enhance my programming skills and advance towards becoming an expert developer in my career path.

EXPERIENCE

Full Stack Web Developer

Briswell Vietnam Co Ltd

Mar 2022 - Present

As a Full-Stack Developer, I enjoy solving complex challenges and leveraging technology to create innovative solutions.

- Order Vehicle Maintain System for Premium Group: In this project, I built an API system and an UI, migrated the database, and ensured the smooth operation of the system.
- Content Management System for Hashimoto: My responsibilities for this project included designing the project architecture and code base, providing solutions to improve common functions, and writing unit tests.
- Course Registration System for Azabu Dental Academy: For this project, I designed the project architecture and built the code base to optimize performance.
- Strategic Skill Learning Platform for Skill Palette: In this project, I maintained the old API system and updated the front-end for new UI/UX design.

Aside from facing and resolving various challenges, I also take part in Technology research activity in my free time to discuss and learning with my colleagues. I help new members get on well with their works and company culture.
